

October 6, 2009 ~ Noon-1 p.m.

Are you facing budget and staff cutbacks at the office? Are you concerned about the impact – on you, your team, the rest of the organization? Are you responsible for providing clear communication counsel amid mounting anxiety and disruption? Then this session is for you.

Join TPRA from noon to 1 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 6, to hear from change and communication expert Christina J. Moore, APR. Only $30 for TPRA members; $75 for non-members.

About the Speaker

Christina has more than 25 years experience in public relations. She's directed communications for mergers and acquisitions as well as layoffs and divestitures. Along the way, she has amassed a wealth of wisdom about communicating during tough times.

Topics to be discussed during this Tele-Webinar are:

- ~ The human impact of change
- ~ Balancing good news with the bad
- ~ Proven methods for communicating with candor and credibility
- ~ Re-engaging the surviving work force
- ~ Sustaining your own resiliency

Brought to you by the Texas Public Relations Association: the Communicators' Connexion

Sign up now for this timely topic!

- TPRA members - $30.00 Non-members - $75.00

Attendee Information

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Title: _____

Company: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____ Email: _____

Payment Information

- Check (payable to TPRA) Visa MasterCard Amex

Credit Card #: _____ Expiration Date: _____

Cardholder Name: _____ Signature: _____

A confirmation will be sent to the above listed email address.
The confirmation will include information on how to enter the tele-webinar.

Please return this completed form via fax to 512-495-9031 no later than October 2, 2009.
TPRA – 823 Congress Ave., Ste. 230 – Austin, TX 78701 – 512-479-0425 – jgeorge@eami.com – www.tpra.org